

University of Iowa Tuba-Euphonium Studio
Final Project - Fall 2009

- Read book at your own pace, but complete it by October 29th.
- Write down useful quotations and concepts
- Use quotations and concepts in Seminar class
- Apply concepts in your own practice, performing, lessons
- Prepare a five-minute oral book report to present at the final Seminar meeting; which should include a summary, observations and review.

Peruse all of the texts and by next week, be ready to express your choices in order of preference. The order of the random drawn lots was:

1. Steve
2. Michael
3. Blaine
4. Tucker
5. Devin
6. Pat
7. Justin
8. Dana
9. Kristina
10. Ben A.
11. Ben R.
12. Karina

- At the beginning of Seminar next week (Thursday, September 3rd), book selections will be made in the order above. I would suggest ranking your books, and rank as many as your lot number. [If you drew number 12, be sure to rank your top 12 books since you will choose last)
- Everyone must acquire (purchase, borrow, or sign out) their books by the next by September 10th.
- Blaine and I will inform you of which books are available through the University of Iowa Library, the Iowa City Public Library, or the Coralville Public Library.
- You must complete the book by October 29th (7 weeks), and make weekly notes and quotations to use when making your comments in seminar.
